Hello! I'm Caleb Sheedy and I am an aspiring multi-hyphenate:
actor/director/producer/manager/creator

As a director, I seek to tell stories of hope, optimism and inspiration that is so often found through tragedy and hardship. I myself have recently learned to see the world through a newer, happier lens despite all that the world throws at me daily. My style of directing includes bold colors, unique shapes, strong attention to detail, and is aimed at asking as many questions as possible. If we aren't asking questions, we aren't making art.
